

Awareness Month

(Lesbian/Gay/Bisexual/Transgender)

Oct.6

Tuesday
6:00 pm

Let It Out! Dialogue

Ally Center

Come to the Ally Center for an enlightening, interactive look at privilege and biases related to sexual orientation.

Oct.8

Thursday
6:30 pm

Safe Space Training

Curran Hall Basement Coffeehouse

Learn more about being an ally and creating a safe environment for LGBTQ faculty, staff and students on our campus. The presentation includes a panel who will share personal "becoming an ally" and "coming out" stories.

Oct.9

Friday
7:00 pm

I ♥ Female Orgasm

Great Hall, Memorial Student Center

This program combines sex education and women's empowerment with a hearty dose of laughter. Nationally known presenters Marshall Miller & Dorian Solot bring a playful, honest approach to this topic with warmth and humor. They illuminate the subject of female orgasm whether you want to have your first one, you're hoping to help your girlfriend, or you're debating the existence of the G-spot or "to fake or not to fake."

Oct.12

Monday
11:30 am

Be a Safe Face!

National Coming Out Day March & Program

Ally Center to Clock Tower Plaza

Gather at the Ally Center at 11:30 am to march through campus, ending at the clock tower plaza (next to Bowman Hall) at 12:00 noon, where we will release balloons, hear from our speakers and provide an opportunity for people to sign up as a "Safe Face" (a person who affirms LGBT people) on our campus.

Oct.13

Thursday
6:30 pm

Safe Space Training

Red Cedar, Room 140

Learn more about being an ally and creating a safe environment for LGBTQ faculty, staff and students on our campus. The presentation includes a panel who will share personal "becoming an ally" and "coming out" stories.

Oct.19

Monday
7:00 pm

Trembling Before G-d

Great Hall, Memorial Student Center

Can a person be passionately devoted both to God and to a same-sex romantic partner? In the movie Trembling Before G-d, Orthodox and Hasidic Jews struggle with ideas of love, belief, community, rejection, and hope. The core message: Jewish faith and homosexuality can coexist. After the movie, panelists from a diversity of religious denominations will lead a discussion about reconciling faith, sexual orientation, and other LGBTQ matters.

Oct.27

Tuesday
6:30 pm

LGBT Travel and Tourism Explorations

Ballroom B, Memorial Student Center

Want to learn about some LGBTQ-friendly places to visit? Or, how about some not-so-friendly destinations for LGBTQ tourists? Come and hear all about LGBT travel from Damian Hanft, a faculty member in the Hospitality & Tourism program.

LGBT History Month is supported by the UW-Stout LGBTQ Program Office, UW-Stout Pride Alliance, UW-Stout Out@Stout student organization, Multicultural Student Services, Assistant Vice Chancellor – Diversity, University Housing, Peer Health Educators, Student Health Services, Manifesta student organization, Women & Gender Studies, Counseling Center, Panhellenic Council, Jew Crew student organization, Adventures in Faith student organization, Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Office, Stout Student Association, University Center/Ally Center, the Chancellor, and the Diversity Advisory Council.

WISCONSIN'S
POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY

Not paid for at taxpayers' expense.