

General Education, Ethnic Studies, and Global Perspective Courses 2009-2010

General Education Requirements

Each degree program has a general education component designed to provide you with knowledge and skills in communication, analytic reasoning, health and physical education, humanities and the arts, social and behavioral sciences, natural sciences and technology. Listed below are the general education credit distribution requirements and courses that will fulfill these requirements. General education courses are listed by category and area. Not all courses are offered each semester. Changes to the list of courses can occur at any time.

Some degree programs have specific general education courses that must be taken in order to satisfy certification, accreditation or prerequisite standards. These exceptions are noted on your program plan sheet.

Ethnic Studies Requirements

The university requires that you take ethnic studies courses to learn about the diverse cultures that make up the United States. Ethnic studies courses are identified as ESA, ESB, or ESC. ESA courses deal directly with an American culture. ESB courses integrate appreciation and understanding of American cultural groups into course subject matter. ESC courses include a significant multicultural component secondary to other course goals. Students are required to take either:

- 1) Two ESA courses, or
- 2) One ESA course and one ESB course, or
- 3) One ESA course and Two ESC courses, or
- 4) One ESB course and two ESC courses, or
- 5) Three ESB courses, or
- 6) Two ESB courses and one ESC course

The Global Perspective graduation requirement is for all undergraduate students who enter UW-Stout beginning in the fall of 2002. To fulfill the requirement, students must choose one of the following options:

Second Language Option

- Complete two years of the same second language in high school with a grade of “C” or above, or
- Complete four university credits of a second language with a grade of “C” or above, or
- Demonstrate competency in a second language by means of a standardized examination. International students who are not native speakers of English must have a TOEFL score of 500.

Global Experience Option

- Complete a program of university-approved work or study abroad, or
- Complete six credits of courses approved as fulfilling the global perspective requirement. * These approved courses are listed below.
- * For a course to fulfill the global perspective requirement, it must, at a meaningful level,
 - (a) directly address global issues, or
 - (b) focus on other subject matter while emphasizing understanding and appreciation of global issues, or
 - (c) teach professional skills or theories that include a global perspective component.

Notes:

With careful planning, you may take a single course that fits into areas of general education, ethnic studies, and/or global perspective. While credits count once toward graduation, they may be used to satisfy multiple requirements. When a course meets multiple requirements, codes indicating other categories are listed in parentheses next to the course listing.

Students planning to study abroad should refer to your application materials and consult with your advisor to see how courses taken abroad satisfy GE and ES requirements.

Exceptions, substitutions, and/or waivers regarding General Education, Ethnic Studies, or Global Perspective requirements must be approved by the Associate Vice Chancellor.
